Highest Hopes Increased.
The State election in Vermont which was held last week, has greatly increased the very high hopes of the Democrats for victory this fall. It has demonstrated one point in particular, which is of vital consequence to the democracy, and that is, the source from which Roosevelt draws his support, and this election has demonstrated that every Democrat in the State of Vermont voted the Democratic ticket and that Roosevelt polled a little over one-third of the Republican vote. The normal Democratic vote in Vermont is about 16,000 and the normal Republican vote is about 40,000, and Roosevelt polled 15,800, the regular Republican 26,000 and the Democratic candidate for governor, 20,330. This shows that not only did every Democrat stand true to his party but that many republican first voters have evidently left the Republican party in disgust and have now allied themselves with the Democrats.
This election shows that Roosevelt and Taft will split the Republican vote in two in every state in the union, and that the Democratic party is united. It is not only possible, but very probable that Woodrow Wilson will carry about 40 states out of the total 48 in the Union.
However, the Democrats must keep up their campaigning and not permit the battle to lag through over confidence. Stand-patism is sinking Taft like a millstone and Teddy is soaked in standard oil to the neck.

The most important thing just now for Powell county is to get good roads and a class of farmers who will study the best way to develop their lands. Farming is now the chief occupation of our people. It behooves us then to learn the best methods of farming to make it pay best. The writer has had considerable experience along this line and will say from what we know farming is a deeper science than either that of medicine or law, and really far more fascinating than either of them. Farmers get a lot of literature on your profession, subscribe for some good agricultural journals and make your occupation a success.
Clay City has been dry a week and we have not heard of a single charge against blind tigers or bootleggers yet. It is encouraging to all to see such a submissive obedience of the local option laws. It is the sincere desire of every lawabiding citizen in the county to see a continuation of respect for the law.

To Enforce Law.
The Times is informed that it is the intention of the Clay City Board of Education to rigidly enforce the compulsory law. This means that all children in the city must attend school. This is as it should be, but we hope to see the children attend without the application of the law. It is always better to willingly abide by the law than to have to be made do so. Parents, send your children to school and avoid the penalty of the law. In after years your children will thank you for what education they may have.

From Kentucky only two contributions to the Wilson campaign fund have been as much as $100. Urey Woodson gave $1,000, and James Camp, of Louisville, sent $100. The names of Kentucky millionaires do not appear on the list of contributors made public by the Democratic National Committee. The one thousand dollar contribution of Urey Woodson was money subscribed by the original Wilson club of Owensboro, of which Mr. Woodson gave $100.

September 4th was the thirtieth anniversary of the first electric light plant in the world. It was installed by the inventor, Thos. A. Edison in New York City. Every city of prominence in the United States since that date has installed this system of lighting, and every one except Clay City has been able to keep their plant going.

The vote in Maine Monday in which the Republicans and Progressives united and carried that state whereas the Democrats carried it two years ago, should be conclusive that "United we stand divided we fall." The liquor question, however, is responsible for the diversion of successes in political parties in many states. Maine in the Presidential race will go safely Democratic this fall.

Comparatively few persons are acquainted with the fact that since Andrew Jackson no President of the United States has served two consecutive terms except General Grant who wanted the third term.

Only people of New York could enjoy standing around looking at a house in which a three million dollar Astor baby is sleeping.

A moose head in mourning will be the prophetic emblem of the new party in this State.

No bosses in the new party. "Bosses," you will note, is in the plural.

Doctors say that eating corn bread is good for the teeth. It might be added that it is good for the entire system.
